A new season always brings a fresh perspective. With winter behind us and summer on the horizon, spring has so much to newness to embrace: warmer weather, blooming flowers, and, of course, runway looks to covet.

The spring fashion trends that resonated with me the most as BAZAAR's senior fashion and accessories editor all had one thing in common. This season's best looks all revolve around wardrobe staples with a twist, whether it's a classic button-down shirt in a polka dot print or a tailored summer suit with shorts instead of trousers. In terms of new accessories, the best spring bags and investments to update your everyday uniform range from structured top handle bags to strappy sandals.

From the pages of Harper's BAZAAR's spring issues, I break down my favorite must-have items of the season—including the pieces defining spring 2023 and how to wear each one.

WHY DON'T YOU...?

Punctuate the look with a cocktail ring.
